"My Goals for My Life"

I think the most valuable thing in life is to live with goals. Everyone should have some goals or dreams; otherwise, what is the meaning of life?

First, I want to become an animator, creating astonishing animations that both adults and children can enjoy. Watching animations always cheers me up, the imagination and lessons it provides can always help me go through obstacles and enable me to consider things from different angles. I, therefore, want to spread this kind of positive power to the entire world. Second, I want to engage in charitable activities as much as I can. There're a lot of people in this world suffering from different kind of difficulties. I think people should know that even a simple random act of kindness can make a big difference to others' life. So I want to start it with myself, doing my best to make this world a better place. Finally, a life without goals is meaningless. Therefore, my biggest goal is to stay determination and never stop dreaming. With this kind of persistence, I can not only live a meaningful and rewarding life but also support others going through their tough time.
